

This Girl's In Love With You
BURT BACHARACH SONGBOOK
TRAINCHA
(& BURT BACHARACH)

featuring a brand new song written by Burt Bacharach & Tim Rice

*'It's not often that you hear of an artist doing all of your music in one Album. I've always approached it with some trepidation and anxiety. This Album exceeds my wildest expectations'. Burt Bacharach

The Girl's In Love With You introduces us to the beguiling sound of Traincha, and her wonderful versions of some of Bacharach's greatest songs. Drawn from her two multi-platinum albums in Holland, it confirms Traincha (Trijntje Oosterhuis) as one of the great man's finest interpreters. Indeed so taken was Mr. Bacharach with her charming, winsome style that not only does he play piano on several tracks (Waiting For Charlie, This House Is Empty Now and Who'll Speak For Love) but he also composed Who'll Speak For Love especially for her, together with lyricist Tim Rice.

Patrick Williams, famed arranger, who has worked with Frank Sinatra, Barbra Streisand and Paul Anka to name just a few, wrote many of the arrangements. Also producing the album, he states: "I've seldom seen Bacharach that enthusiastic. "I think that Burt, after the success he had with Dionne Warwick, was looking for a new, right voice to perform his songs... I think he found her. She has the voice that can match his songs and is capable of turning difficult songs into seemingly easy ones. I've worked with numerous singers who all had something unique, but Traincha seems to be able to combine the various talents into one. She's got a musical instinct, that's something you can't learn and both her vocal emotions and range are very impressive. "

Joining Williams in what is something of a dream team is renowned jazz arranger and conductor Vince Mendoza and engineer Al Schmitt (who worked with Frank Sinatra, Barbra Streisand and Diana Krall) together with Traincha, Bacharach and the Metropole Orchestra they have conjured something graceful, timeless and wonderful. But we should leave the last word to Bacharach himself.

"I loved recording with her, she is so damn good and so musical. The Album is finished. Pat Williams and Vince Mendoza wrote Glorious arrangements, Al Schmitt one of our greatest engineers in the world flew out to record and mix it – how great is that? I am very proud of the work, Trijntje should be. She is shining thru. Consider her a treasure." Burt Bacharach

Traincha This Girl's In Love With You is released on August 3rd, 2009
